

Herbert J. Hunt

Arr. for The Hymnal, 1933

1. God speaks to me! In accents sweet and tender,
 2. God speaks to me! His voice so re-as-suring,
 3. God speaks to me! O let me glad-ly lis-ten

His prom-ise comes through life to be my guide;
 That if I'm called to tread the shad-owed vale,
 To words that cheer me all a-long life's way.

In pas-tures green and pleas-ant paths to lead me,
 I'll fear no ill; His rod and staff suf-fi-cient
 His heal-ing balm as-suag-es ev-ery sor-row;

With rest and shade the qui-et stream be-side.
 To cope with foes, no mat-ter what as-sail.
 My cup o'er-flows with mer-cies new each day!

Thanks be to Thee, O ev - er - lov - ing Fa - ther:
 Thanks be to Thee, O ev - er - lov - ing Fa - ther:
 Thanks be to Thee, O ev - er - lov - ing Fa - ther:

For all my wants Thou dost for aye pro - vide!
 With Thee to bless, I must, and shall, pre - vail!
 With - in Thy house I'll dwell in love al - way!
