

I AM THE THINKER THAT THINK THE THOUGHTS

*I am the thinker. I am the thinker that thinks the thoughts
I am the thinker. I am the thinker that thinks the thoughts*

*I am the thinker that thinks the thoughts
It is my thoughts, that make the things
It is the things, I manifest, into my life (x2)*

*And I know that I am blessed with health
And I know that I am blessed with love
And I know that I am beautiful
And I know that I am in God's overflow*

*I am the thinker that thinks the thoughts
It is my thoughts, that make the things
It is the things, I manifest, into my life (x2)*

*And I know I'm blessed coming in and out
And I know I'm blessed beyond a doubt
And I know I'm above and not beneath
And I know that God supplies all my needs*

*I am the thinker that thinks the thoughts
It is my thoughts, that make the things
It is the things, I manifest, into my life (x2)*

*And I know that I am blessed with health
And I know that I am blessed with wealth
And I know that I am beautiful
And I know I'm in God's overflow
And I know I'm blessed coming in and out
And I know I'm blessed beyond a doubt
And I know I'm above and not beneath
And I know that God supplies all my needs*
